Abstract

This document contains the prototyping of the clinic web application. Wireframes represent the blue prints of the application. They are taken as a base to develop higher level prototypes, interactive mock-ups. The wireframes were drawn using draw.io, which is an online diagram software that enables live collaboration.

Home Page

FAKE COMMENT: In the homepage of the website, the users sees a “Locations” button on the menu bar. After clicking, a map and list of all locations are displayed. The user can go and browse the services offered by each locations. Claire discovers that a location is very close to her mother and they are offering “Therapeutic nutrition”. She recommend it to her mother as she thinks it can be beneficial to her.
